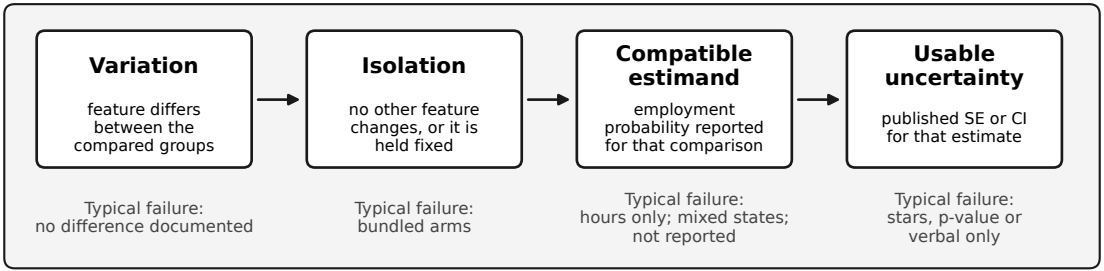
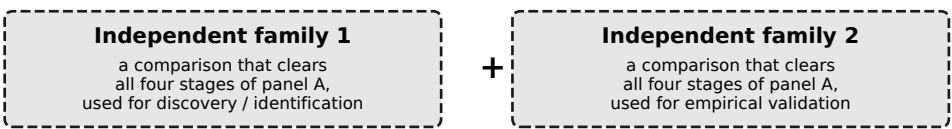
A Comparison-level evidence audit (applied to one comparison at a time)



B Project-specific requirement of the prospective test (not a fifth stage)



Panel B is a feasibility rule for this test only, not a property of a single comparison and not a general condition for transportability: formal transport can use one source under stated assumptions. Operational audit criteria, not a new causal theory.